The academic year at Chuo University lasts from April 1 to March 31. Only exchange students who are enrolled for the full academic year beginning in April can take full-year courses. Exchange students who are enrolled for first semester only, second semester only, or second and first semesters can't take full-year courses. They can take only semester courses.  2. Especially the Graduate Schools of Law and Letters offer many full-year courses and few semester courses. Though they are not able to register for full-year courses, they may be allowed to simply audit the full-year courses, if your academic adviser permits.
Student Status at Chuo	Undergraduate program: Senkasei * Students can apply to enroll in any academic courses in the regular curriculum offered by the Faculty in which they are registered. Academic courses in other Faculties may be taken upon approval of the Faculties concerned and according to the regulations of those Faculties.  Graduate program: Senkasei* or Kenkyusei Senkasei can apply to any academic courses in the regular curriculum offered by the Graduate School in which they are registered. Caution: Students may not be able to obtain as many credits as the student plans if the student does not have enough Japanese language proficiency (preferably JLPT N1 level) to take academic courses taught in Japanese.  Note:  1) We do not offer exchange program Senkasei-status at the doctorate level. If you are doctoral student you must select Kenkyusei.  2) The Graduate schools of Economics, Commerce, Letters and Policy Studies offer very few academic courses taught in English.  3) If we cannot find a suitable academic advisor based on a student's study plan and language proficiency, we will not be able to accept that student in our exchange program.

Aim Students, with grade and New program emphasizes not only lectures in class, but the learning process such as credit) research, discoveries, and expressing the outcomes in words. The program aims to "connect with society" through each student's learning of the language and culture in NOT mandatory order to take full advantage of studying Japanese in Japan. 2. Content and Objectives If you have no opportunity to use any language, you will not be able to use it. In addition, if you learn in classroom only the content focused on the language knowledge, your understanding of Japanese society and culture can be just superficial with stereotypes. Therefore, this program focuses on learning activities in which students decide a topic of interest in Japanese culture and society, as well as research, presentations, and review, so that you will have your own ideas and opinions and put them into words. You also communicate with Japanese supporters and are given assignments of surveys or interviews on campus. We aim at stimulating students' new awareness about the language, culture, and Japanese society (or your own country) through sharing the learning outcomes cultivated from your study, as well as reviewing. 3. Course Components Levels: Mainly 3 levels (beginner(A1,A2), intermediate(B1) and advanced(B2, C1)) Level Placement: will be decided based on students' Japanese educational backgrounds. Campuses offered: Tama & Korakuen Course composition: Each course offered in two consecutive periods (ex. 1st & 2nd periods), students are required to register two classes as a set. Course load per semester: 200 minutes/week x 14 weeks/semester Credit(s): 2 credits/semester (1 credit each per class) *Only exchange students enrolled in the Faculty of Science and Engineering are permitted to take just one class per week which will be offered on the Korakuen Campus. In this case student earn 1 credit per semester. Academic Courses To fulfill visa requirements, exchange students must attend 6 classes or more, or conduct research more than 10 hours per week. Enjoy academic interaction opportunities to study with local students as well as degree-seeking international students. a.
